Elected Member Name Kate Taylor

Conflicts of Interests

Conflicts of interest exist when a person's duties or responsibilities to Council could be, or could be perceived to be, affected by some other separate interest or duty.

Conflicts of interest can arise from a wide range of circumstances including but not limited to:

- Being an advisor, director, partner, trustee, or beneficiary of another business or organisation;
- Being a member of a club, society, or association;
- Having a professional or legal obligation to someone else; or owing a debt to someone else;
- Holding or expressing strong political or personal views that might indicate prejudice or predetermination for or against a person or issue;
- Having received a gift, hospitality, or other benefit from someone;
- Being a close friend or relative of someone who holds these interests (or who could otherwise be personally affected by a decision of the Council).

Below are a series of prompts to assist in identifying conflicts of interest:
