

District Plan Hearings Panel Conflicts of Interest Declaration

Elected Member Name	Pip Burne
Conflicts of Interests
Conflicts of interest exist when a person's duties or responsibilities to Council could be, or could be perceived to be, affected by some other separate interest or duty.
Conflicts of interest can arise from a wide range of circumstances including but not limited to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Being an advisor, director, partner, trustee, or beneficiary of another business or organisation; · Being a member of a club, society, or association; · Having a professional or legal obligation to someone else; or owing a debt to someone else; · Holding or expressing strong political or personal views that might indicate prejudice or predetermination for or against a person or issue; · Having received a gift, hospitality, or other benefit from someone; · Being a close friend or relative of someone who holds these interests (or who could otherwise be personally affected by a decision of the Council).
Below are a series of prompts to assist in identifying conflicts of interest:
