Dog Control Act 1996

Section 52 provides for control of dogs:

1. The owner of any dog shall keep that dog under control at all times.
2. Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) of this section, a dog shall, for purposes of this Act, be deemed to be not under control:
  - a) If it is found at large on any land or premises other than a public place or private way without the consent (express or implied) of the occupier or person in charge of that land or those premises; or
  - b) If it is found at large in any public place or in any private way in contravention of any regulation or bylaw.
3. Where a dog is not under control in terms of subsection (2) of this section, the dog control officer or ranger may seize the dog and cause it to be returned to its owner or impounded.

Section 52A provides for control of dog on owner's property:

1. This section applies when a dog is on the land or premises occupied by its owner.
2. The owner of a dog must at all times, ensure that either -
  - a) the dog is under the direct control of a person; or
  - b) the dog is confined within the land or premises in such a manner that it cannot freely leave the land or premises.
3. Every person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not exceeding $3,000 who fails to comply with ss(2).
4. If a person fails to comply with ss(2), a dog control officer may seize and impound the dog and may enter at any reasonable time the land or premises (except a dwelling house) owned or occupied by the owner of the dog.

Section 54 provides for the obligations of dog owners:

1. The owner of any dog shall:
  - a) Ensure that the dog receives proper care and attention and is supplied with proper and sufficient food, water and shelter; and
  - b) Ensure that the dog receives adequate exercise.
2. Every person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or to a fine not exceeding $5,000 who, being the owner of any dog, fails to comply with subsection (1) of this section.

Section 42 provides for the offence of failing to register dog:

1. Except as provided in section 24 or section 43 of this Act, every person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $3,000 who keeps any dog of a greater age than 3 months unless the dog is for the time being registered under the provisions of this Act for the current registration year.
2. If a territorial authority has reasonable grounds to believe that a person has failed to comply with ss(1) a dog control officer, or dog ranger may -
  - a) seize and impound the dog; and
  - b) for the purpose of paragraph (a), enter, at any reasonable time, any land or premises (except a dwelling house) occupied by the owner of the dog.

Microchipping

Dogs requiring microchipping:

- (a) Any dog(s) registered for the first time after 1 July 2006, unless the dog(s) are kept solely or principally for the purpose of herding or droving stock.
