Please Note:

Criteria the Trustees will use when considering your application:

1 You must live in Central Hawke's Bay.

2 You must be intending to attend, or actually attending a course of tertiary education in New Zealand.

3 They will consider how much you will suffer financial hardship by attending the course.

4 You should be capable of improving your future educational prospects by attendance at the course.

5 Preference will be given to people who have not received funds from the Trust before, except in cases of extreme financial hardship.

6 That excepting special circumstances, preference will be given to applicants who will be attending their first year of tertiary education.

7 It is important that all sections of the application form are completed.
